

✈ Global Secure Business

In the past, a breach in corporate security usually meant a company loss of money or materials. Today, it can mean a loss of intellectual property, major shareholders, or even employee lives. Today's volatile business environment and the expanding potential liability now requires that companies must look to specialized sources to assist with the security of the company's assets, physical property and employees. So how do business professionals handle these new requirements for corporate security? Like many smart executives, they turn to the people who have been doing it for years. At Global Secure Resources, our experts have spent their careers in global business security. In addition to their investigative experience, our partners possess a wide variety of skills including foreign language abilities, cultural knowledge of key international markets and a working "rolodex" of international and domestic contacts that can cut through the bureaucracy to accomplish our client's goals. GLOSEC Business specializes in the following areas:

- Investigations
- Litigation Support
- Forensics
- Customs Import/Export Controls
- Executive and Facility Protection

Today, more than ever before, security is a key issue for virtually every organization and individual. No matter the size of your business or the services provided, the potential for risk and threats occur daily and evolve constantly. Because of that fluidity, virtually everyone has a "security gap"

In 1988 the formation for the idea of Global Secure Resources was first launched overseas when collectively US Embassy members representing major components within government, including Economics, Political, Commercial and Security, identified the need for Diplomatic resources to be more integrated with the needs of the private sector. Years later, Global Secure Resources draws from this experience to ensure that best practices continue to be refined in order to meet our customers requirements.

At Global Secure Resources we stress a more holistic approach for dealing with matters related to safety and security. We believe to be truly effective in our mission, our clients must feel safe and secure not just in the workforce or at home, but in everything that they do. Our corporation is global but our presence is local and we remain committed to providing our clients with the resources to keep them safe and secure where they raise their family, vacation, explore, live and work.

✈️ Global Secure Student

Industry has created plans customized for our health, finance, retirement, diet and even our physical fitness goals. Our Individual Threat Assessment Plan (ITAP) now provides you with a customized plan for your security.

Each year thousands of students will die, be severely injured or become the victims of crime while involved in a school sponsored trip or academic setting. Unfortunately many institutions for a variety of reasons have inadequate or flawed reporting when it comes to the safety and security of their campus. An even greater concern is the Increased victimization of students involved with academic programs off campus where security protocols are limited or non-existent. GLOSEC Student addresses these concerns with a prevention strategy geared toward the individual student and their activities both on and off campus, including participation in study abroad programs, community service projects, work internships, field trips, off-site housing, sporting events and social activities. Read more about how for as little as $9.95, you can provide a special gift of security for your friends, neighbors or children.

✈️ Global Secure Family

You have looked forward to that cruise or perhaps that family vacation but how much do you really know about your destination and the dangers that await? What happens if you become sick, need replacement medicine or become the victim of an accident or crime? Who will warn you of a rash of criminal activity occurring where you will be visiting or the latest crime trends involving tourists? Even closer to home, who do you contact when you need confidential background information regarding the neighborhood where you may be moving or the history of the nanny that has been entrusted to watch your children?

GLOSEC Family is pleased to provide the same level of services to families as we provide to our business customers. We believe that our clients should be safe where they work, live, explore and raise a family. Although we have a global reach, we also have a local presence. Read more about how we can assist you with a variety of our services ranging from travel risk mitigation to background verification services.

The U.S. State Department says it has received reports of assaults, including sexual assaults, in casinos, outside hotels, and on cruise ships. In addition we have learned of a wide variety of crimes against cruise passengers, including rapes against young women ashore, theft, and violent robberies. Crewmembers have known this for years but the problem continues to exist.
